eye, at birth. "Since the day he was born, he has struggled a lot. His other eye has power, causing him to constantly wear spectacles," said his father Deepak, who works as a mechanical engineer at a public sector enterprise.

Vedant Borkute

Vedant's mother, now a home-maker, quit her job as a lecturer three years ago to supervise her only child's studies.

The family had expected Vedant to score well, his father said. He had scored 98.2 per cent in Class X CBSE board examination and 91.84 per cent in the HSC examination the science stream. In IEE-Main, Vedant scored 99.2 percentile, securing the third rank in his category. "His dream of studying computer science at IIT-Bombay will finally come true. After his studies, he had to sit with his eye closed at times as it would hurt. At night, we would help him cover his eyes with a wet cloth," his father said, adding that Vedant's cousin is an alumnus of IIT Kharagpur. Vedant, a student of Shivaii Science College, was always a smart student and voracious reader, his father added.

"We tell him that he has at least one eye. He can read, see and hear," his father said, adding that his son uses social media sparingly and has limited friends. His Common Rank List is 2.958.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE MUMBAI, JUNE 14

THE BOMBAY High Court on Friday said that investigation into the murder cases of leaders Narendra Dabholkar and Govind Pansare must end some day for the trial to commence.

A division bench of Justices S C Dharmadhikari and Gautam Patel were hearing petitions filed by the family members of Dabholkar and Pansare, seeking court supervision into probes conducted by the centre and state agencies.

On Friday the reports were submitted in a sealed envelope by the CBI in the murder case Dabholkar, and SIT in the murder of Pansare. After reading the reports, in the bench said: "We express our concern that the investigations must end some day for the trial to commence in both the matters."
